

It strikes me as essential to democracy and the stability of our country during these politically polarized times, that we NOT allow monopolies in the media.